Wine selection from South Africa, Australia and New Zealand including:

Cloudy Bay Sauvignon Blanc 2016: the iconic New Zealand Marlborough.

Kumeu River Hunting Hill Chardonnay 2014: a New Zealand chardonnay that is every bit as good as a 1er Cru Puligny-Montrachet, and similar in style with stunning freshness, length and minerality.

Rocking Horse Cape White, Thorne & Daughters, 2014: a blend of chenin blanc, roussanne, semillon and chardonnay from the Western Cape, South Africa. Broad and rich, with good acidity and tannin.

Raats Family, Cabernet Franc, 2010: a 100% cab franc from Stellenbosch. Intense bouquet of blackberry, scorched earth and soy.

Sadie Family, Pofadder 2014: cinsault based wine from Swartland, South Africa. Fresh strawberry, red fruits, taut and crisp. Fabulous taste.

Leeuwin Estate Art Series Shiraz 2009: One of Margaret River's best makers; typically medium-bodied & spicy.

Cyril Henschke Cabernet Sauvignon, Eden Valley 2003: elegant and intense cab, with a touch of merlot, from one of Australia's top makers.

Felton Road Bannockburn Pinot Noir 2012: highly rated, classic NZ pinot from Central Otago. Dry, medium body with raspberries, pepper spice flavors. Impressive balance of ripe acidity and fine tannins; exceptional length.

Spice Route Pinotage 2014: South Africa's own grape from a good year and a good maker. Black plums and cherries, with dark spice and cedar
