

The International Wine & Food Society

Family Style Dinner at Bacaro

2 September 2020

A selection of wines from the IWFS cellar

We have plenty of wine, but supplies of some wines are limited so not all will be available for everybody to try

Kumeu River Hunting Hill Chardonnay 2014 (limited supply): a New Zealand chardonnay that is every bit as good as a 1er Cru Puligny-Montrachet, and similar in style with stunning freshness, length and minerality.

Sadie Family, Old Vine Series Pofadder 2014 (limited supply): cinsault based wine from Swartland, South Africa. Fresh strawberry, red fruits, taut and crisp. Fabulous taste.

Croix de Rambeau, St. Emilion 2011: 90% merlot, 10% cabernet franc. Fruity, elegant, well structured.

Charvin Chateauneuf du Pape 1999 (limited supply): 85% Grenache, 5% Syrah, 5% Mourvedre and 5% Vaccarese. Medium to full-bodied, pure and elegant; the wine sees absolutely no oak, aging 21 months in large concrete tanks.

Marques de Riscal Reserva, Rioja 2001: traditional rioja from a great vintage. 90% tempranillo and 10% graciano and mazuelo. Medium bodied, plenty of plum, black cherry and blackberry favors nicely intertwined with ripe tannins.

Spice Route Pinotage 2014: South Africa's own grape from a good year and a good maker. Black plums and cherries, with dark spice and cedar.