

The International Wine and Food Society

Jakarta, Indonesia

Sunday Dinner, 21 Sep 2014, at MING Dine & Chill

Dear Members,

It is with great delight to get together again and have all of us, good friends, food and wine lovers together!

Our second IWFS dinner will be held at MING Dine & Chill, a legendary Chinese restaurant in the heart of Jakarta. MING is part of the famous Tung Lok Group that recently had a make over to wow diners with still exquisite dishes in a brand new ambiance.

This is our second IWFS Jakarta gathering with many new members and interesting pairing of delicious Chinese dishes and the wines that guests will bring.

MING has prepared a special menu for this special dinner. The highlight of the evening will be the trio dishes consisting of freshly prepared Steamed Red Garoupa, Rack of Lamb, and their famous Lobster Noodle. From start to finish, we will be able to appreciate this well-crafted menu. We will also learn more about the creative pairing that will be conducted by our Cellar Master.

Please join us for an exciting and relaxed dinner to meet other members and learn more about IWFS
