

International Wine and Food Society

Jakarta, Indonesia

Dear Members,

We are excited to announce that our third event of the year, in conjunction with Art Bazaar Jakarta, the biggest art fair in Indonesia, will be hosted by our member, Deborah Iskandar at the Art Bazaar Pop up restaurant. The guest chef, Chef Yann Bernard Lejard has worked in various Michelin-starred restaurants across Europe, will create a 5-course Camellia Epicurean Tea Inspired Brunch, forging culinary art to new boundaries with a striking artistic approach.

Born in Paris and holding a degree in cooking since the age of 16, his career includes the Award Finalist of the Taittinger Culinary Grand Prix Awards in Switzerland 2005, when he worked with Alain Ducasse at Plaza Athenée. In 2008 working at Hotel Las Dunas' restaurant, a one Michelin star restaurant in Andalusia, Marbella Spain. He also has worked in some leading restaurants across Greater Europe (over 12 countries) and three star Michelin awarded Chefs such as Heinz Winkler in Aschau Germany.

Chef Yann Bernard received 1st Ranked Chef for Saudi Arabia in the British magazine "FOUR-The World Best Food magazine". This is definitely one brunch not to be missed!
