A JOINT LUNCH WITH SURREY HILLS

Wednesday 8th June 2011

Lunch at Great Fosters, Stroude Road, Egham, Surrey TW20 9UR

Tel: 01784 433822

As their website says - A View to Dine For.....

A setting to take your breath away whilst enjoying your Prosecco with views of spectacular topiary, a Saxon moat with a Japanese bridge and a sunken circular rose garden which will be in full bloom on our visit. Come and enjoy a delicious meal put together by Head Chef Simon Bolsover. We will be dining in The Oak Room which has been awarded Three Rosettes by the AA and is now in the top 10% of AA accredited restaurants in the country. We will start with an aperitif of Prosecco, hopefully in the garden, then enjoy a three course lunch and coffee. As usual with our lunches, so as to not encourage the drivers amongst us to over indulge, beverages will be at your discretion.

The Menu.

English asparagus with truffled a la greque,
slow cooked egg and soldiers

or

Label Anglais chicken and sweetbread pressing, salt roasted beetroot and pickled pear

Line caught seabass, crab gnocchi,
