

PRODUTTORI del BARBARESCO

The fundamental beginnings of Produttori del Barbaresco started in 1894 by Domizio Cavazza when he collaborated with nine Barbaresco owners to produce wine in his castle. They were called Cantine Sociali. However, it was not until 1958, when Produttori del Barbaresco was officially established when a priest gathered 19 small growers to continue the works of Cavazza. This estate grows premium Nebbiolo vineyards expanding over 100 hectares in Barbaresco, Italy, and is considered “one of the most prestigious wineries in the area.” They currently have 50 families tending to their vineyards to collaboratively produce their excellent Barbaresco wines.

Barbaresco Riserva Asili 2016

97 Points, Vinous; 97 Points, Wine Advocate; 97 Points, Wine Spectator

“Soaring aromatics, beautifully pliant red-toned fruit and tons of pure depth emerge in a stunning Barbaresco that captivates all the senses. Silky, refined and exceptionally beautiful, the 2016 is quite simply one of the most complete Asilis I have tasted from the Produttori. It is an unforgettable wine.”

“The 2016 Barbaresco Montefico is a jewel of a wine. Freshly cut flowers, minerals, crushed rocks, rose petal and lavender are all finely cut. As always, the Montefico is tense and chiseled in style. Its sense of transparency is simply beguiling.” — Antonio Galloni, VN, Oct. 2020

“The 2016 Barbaresco Riserva Ovello is the most severe and angular of these wines. It will appeal most to die-hard classicists. Chalk, white pepper, mint and sweet red cherry fruit all grace this chiseled, beautifully translucent Barbaresco... It is a positively stellar wine in every way.”— Antonio Galloni, VN, Oct. 2020
