

PRODUTTORI del BARBARESCO

The fundamental beginnings of Produttori del Barbaresco started in 1894 by Domizio Cavazza when he collaborated with nine Barbaresco owners to produce wine in his castle. They were called Cantine Sociali. However, it was not until 1958, when Produttori del Barbaresco was officially established when a priest gathered 19 small growers to continue the works of Cavazza. This estate grows premium Nebbiolo vineyards expanding over 100 hectares in Barbaresco, Italy, and is considered “one of the most prestigious wineries in the area.” They currently have 50 families tending to their vineyards to collaboratively produce their excellent Barbaresco wines.

Barbaresco Riserva Muncagota 2016

94+ Points, Vinous; 96 Points, Wine Advocate; 95 Points, Wine Spectator

“The 2016 Barbaresco Riserva Muncagota continues this tasting of frankly awe-inspiring wines. Rich, deep and super-expressive, the 2016 hits all the right notes. Black cherry, plum, spice, leather, licorice emerge, but only with great reluctance.” — Antonio Galloni, VN, Oct. 2020

Barbaresco Riserva Pajè 2016

96 Points, Vinous; 95 Points, Wine Advocate; 95 Points, Wine Spectator

“The 2016 Barbaresco Pajè opens with deeply pitched spice notes that are so alluring. Pliant and beautifully layered in the glass, the 2016 possesses tremendous density and brawn. Blue/purplish fruit, cloves, lavender and menthol infuse this rich, hedonistic Barbaresco with tons of character.”

Barbaresco Riserva Rio Sordo 2016

94 Points, Vinous; 96 Points, Wine Advocate; 95 Points, Wine Spectator

“The 2016 Barbaresco Riserva Rio Sordo is a serious, somber wine. Black cherry, plum, lavender, spice and menthol show off the darker side of Nebbiolo to great effect... Readers will find a potent, brooding yet mid-weight Barbaresco that screams with character.” — Antonio Galloni, VN, Oct. 2020
