January 2023

Dear Members,

As we welcome 2023, we look back at the significance of the past year. Branches in the Asia Pacific Zone have emerged from forced hibernation with a bang. We have yet another bumper issue with news from 13 branches.

The New Year has us welcome a new branch to our APZ family. The TaoChuMiao branch in Taiwan held its inaugural dinner on 14 January with 17 members.

In India, the Bombay Branch welcomed its new President Sameer Hiremath. Sameer takes over from Chintamani Kaigaonkar who has served for 4 years. In Kuala Lumpur, members gathered for its annual Christmas charity dinner to raise funds for 3 children's charities in Malaysia.

2023 marks 90 years of the International Wine & Food Society, founded by Andre Simon and A.J.A Symons in 1933. A special logo to mark this occasion will be released to all branches soon.

A huge thank you to all branches for your contributions. Please continue to send us your stories and feedback as we seek to improve our communication with you.

Wishing everyone a great 2023.

A Message from the APZ Chair

Dear Members

In September 2022 it was exciting to finally have undertaken an inperson festival / AGM weekend in in Singapore. The Singapore branch created an inspirational event for all attendees, and I was honoured to be part of it. A special thank-you to all the attendees given the numerous travel restrictions.

In November 2022 I was delighted to travel to the Philippines to attend the 40th anniversary of the branch foundation. I was honoured to present 8 white medallions to members for their voluntary exceptional service to the IWFS. My sincere gratitude to President Jay Labrador for coordinating an incredible wine and food experience. I also attended the Manila Ladies branch and was hosted by Vice-Chair Christine (Tina) B. De Jesus and fellow committee members including Glenda Barreto who is the pioneer of Filipino cuisine.

We're now looking forward to the proposed Sydney festival from the 18-22 October 2023, which is to be hosted by the New South Wales branch Chaired by Jim Anderson and his team. The branch is finalising arrangements for the festival and please look out for updates on our APZ website.

I trust that all the branches and members have received the latest Monograph – A Guide to Modern Madeira, vintage guide and IWFS gift bags. We are constantly updating the content of our IWFS webapp and encourage all our members to download the members app to facilitate better use of our website at: https://www.iwfs.org/membersapp

I'm looking forward to the full resumption of activities amongst our APZ branches. I'm planning to visit a number of branches in person to further build relationships given the challenging times we have experienced. I'm delighted with the encouragement from our Exco members Eddie Hu and Dominique Levy from our Taipei branch who nominated a successful opening of a new branch being TaoChuMiao under the leadership of Dr Chih Shan Coralie Yuan. I welcome them to the IWFS family and look forward to sharing some great food, wine and friendship and hope to visit later this year.

My sincere thanks and appreciation to the voluntary contribution of our APZ Board and Executive Committee Members for their continued commitment to the advancement of the APZ.

News From the International Secretariat London

Andrea Warren

In order to assist Society members to make a more informed choice about which wines to buy, either for laying down or for drinking, this year we have sourced the latest vintage reports from all the regions featured on our 2023 Vintage Card and App https://www.iwfs.org/ secretariat/iwfs-merchandise/latest-vintage-card (2021 in the northern hemisphere and 2022 in the southern hemisphere). We have been able to do this with the kind assistance of many of our expert Wine Consultants around the globe and also our Wines Committee member Charles Taylor MW who has allowed us to use the vintage reports he has written for his clients for wines of Bordeaux and Burgundy.

Wine articles – have you read our latest commissioned article "Oregon Wine Matures" written by Katherine Cole? Katherine provides a gentle introduction into how it all began and then features some of the main players who have forged Oregon's global reputation for Pinot Noir today and introduces exciting wines to watch out for in the future.

Due to space limitations we are featuring vintage reports for a number of the classic European wine producing regions for the 2021 vintage. We will publish the remaining regions, not included here, in a pdf document available on our website (www.iwfs.org/vintage-charts---cards).

We trust you find this useful in months to come.

All best wishes for 2023

Branch Happenings

Over 40 members from branches of the IWFS in the APZ gathered in Singapore in September for the APZ Festival. This was the first time in over 3 years that members from different branches in the region were able to gather face to face.

Members enjoyed a full programme from local eats by the beach front facing the South China Sea to curry tiffin at the Raffles Hotel, there was lots of merry making and toasting. On the formal front, a tutored tasting of 5 vintages of Domenico Clerico's Pajana wine was led by brand representative Mr. Domenico Luccio. This was followed by the gala dinner which featured Tenuta San Guido's Sassicaia (vintages 2014 and 2015). The weekend ended with a Michelin starred meal at the National Gallery's ART restaurant where Chef Daniele Sperindio and his team wowed us with his interpretation of modern Italian cuisine.

A huge thank you to all Singapore members and the organising committee for making this event a success. All the professional photos from the festival have been saved on a Google Drive. If you wish to have access to the photos, please email us at apz@iwfs.org

Event with Domaine Tissot, Jura November 18, 2022

IWFS Bombay Branch President, Chintamani Kaigaonkar handed over the baton to Sameer Hiremath after a successful stint of four years. The new term at IWFS started with an event with Domaine Tissot, Jura - a vineyard that has garnered much interest amongst collectors in recent times. After this tasting, we learnt that this attention is not only much deserved but extremely accurate.

Accompanying these elegant and complex wines was a delicious menu curated by Chef Varun, from the avantgarde restaurant Masque, which rates in the top 50 restaurants in Asia.

Châteaux Haut Brion, Châteaux La Mission Haut Brion, Four Seasons Hotel, December 17th, 2022

Following the Tissot event was another special and exciting evening. A favourite wine maker, Chateau

Haut Brion and Chateau La Mission Brion returned to IWFS to showcase a stellar line up. It truly was a perfect Christmas celebration!

The festivities got better with two 100pointers and two mature wines from the Eighties and Noughties in Double-Magnums. The wines were superbly introduced by Gérard Blanloeil, Managing Director of Clarence Dillon Wines.

Members, who attended a similar dinner, almost 10 years ago, recollected the equally superb lineup presented by Prince Robert de Luxembourg, the owner of the Châteaux. Some of us were also privileged to dine at Château Haut Brion, a couple of years prior, when Prince Robert treated us to 4 x 100 – pointer wines, over a fabulous lunch!

We checked the two Double Magnums out of straw and decanted the 1980 Haut Brion directly into the glass, using a virgin draught beer pipe and the case of the 2002 La Mission Haut Brion.

We decanted into bottles, sing the same pipe, 30 minutes prior to service and then poured into glasses from the bottles. The 1980 Haut Brion stole the show in the Double Mags face-off and in the case of the younger 100-pointers, it was La Mission Haut Brion that won the majority vote.

Also known as the Chinese mitten crab, it is only available annually from October to The team at 10 SHANGHAI November. created a crab-themed menu that emphasised the delectable sweet flesh and creamy, buttery roe of this Chinese delicacy. While traditionally-paired with Chinese yellow wine, we also explored creative pairing options using Scotch whisky, aged Japanese sake, and the incomparable Puro Movla White 2012, which must be disgorged by opening each bottle upside down into a bowl of water. COZY - JAZZY - COFFEE CHRISTMASY PARTY

Hong Kong Branch Committee Mr. Ricky Hung is a man of many talents. This year, he showcased them all by establishing Hong Kong's newest jazz bar and café, KIND OF BREW. He graciously hosted a Christmas Party for a small group of members.

Jazzed up with the best contemporary Christmas songs, and a real Christmas tree, those who attended were furthered pampered by traditional festive dishes. This included the most sumptuous of lamb racks and Ricky's own brew of spiced mulled wine. By the time everyone realised that the champagne and wine bottles ran dry, it was way past midnight!

IWFS Victoria

In the last quarter of 2022 IWFS Vic Branch hosted two fabulous dinners a 'specialised tasting dinner at the acclaimed restaurant Aru on 26th October 2022 and end of year function at Rosella Dining Room and Bar 29th November 2022.

At Aru, chef Nguyen effortlessly blends Southeast Asian flavours, native Australian ingredients and ancient techniques. This produces dishes that are familiar yet have flavours that are nothing short of a revelation and along with a beautifully curated matching wines.

Our final function for the year was held at Rosella Dining Room and Bar where we were treated to quintessential Italian dishes of baked rice with mussels and potato, were among the interesting regional choices on the menu. Rosella's excellent snapper crudo a highlight with other dishes of beef carpaccio and swordfish carbonara, it is easy to see why the restaurant has receives such favourable reviews.

A perfect match for Italian food is, not surprisingly, Italian wine. For this function we selected from the many great mature Italian wines in our cellar, supported by a few wonderful non-Italian old and new world wines.

At the end of 2022 we thanked and acknowledged our appreciation for the outgoing President Erik Lehnacker, after an 8-year term! We are grateful for all his hard work and contribution as President and steering us through the difficult period of the Covid19 pandemic.

Victoria Branch ook forward to many more memorable functions in 2023 - good food, good wine and good friends.

In October, we dined at the Royal Perth Yacht Club on Friday. Another change of day to see if it suited more members. (It didn't seem to.) The evening featured Mazza Wines with a paired menu from the Chef at RPYC. Both David and Anne Mazza attended and David was most informative and entertaining about his and Anne's history in the wine industry and of course their Donnybrook winery. Mazza wines produce little known Spanish & Portuguese varietal wines grown on their vineyard in Donnybrook. It was a very enjoyable evening and attendees had the opportunity to purchase Mazza wines with a 20% discount.

With the success of 2021 BT dinner at ANZAC House we repeated the event so all those who missed last year had a second chance to attend. It was another wonderful evening, enjoying the fine food, good wine and wonderful views. We were even treated to the night sky show of drone - in the comfort of the venue. It was a magic view enhanced by a magician we had employed just for this time.
